New residents in Texas, unless they are in the military, must change their vehicle registration to reflect their new residency. Thirty (30) days is allowed or until gainfully employed (whichever comes first) to change your vehicle registration. To be registered, a vehicle must have a Texas safety inspection. In order, to transfer an out-of-state vehicle to a Texas title and get Texas registration, the owner must have a green identification certificate. This form is issued at the safety inspection station. Subsequent registrations may be handled by mail or at the Buda Justice of Peace office.
